NEW JERSEY REPUBLICAN RACE IS ON

Nation Watches Outcome of Wet and Dry Question in Primary Election.

NEWARK, N. J., June 17.—New Jersey presented to the nation today a three-ringed political circus of unparalleled national interest, involving the senatorial aspirations of three prominent men and that rarest of all Republican spectacles—a referendum on the issue of prohibition.

Between 500,000 and 600,000 Jerseyites began trekking to the polls at 8 a. m. to settle it.

MORROW FAVORED

Perhaps by midnight it will be determined whether Jersey Republicans are wet or dry, and whether Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, Congressman Franklin Fort, or ex-Senator "Joe" Frelinghuysen gains the Republican senatorial nomination, which carries with it the privilege of opposing a "wring wet" Democrat, Alexander Simpson, in November.

On what race track followers know as form, Ambassador Morrow should win. He is the favorite. He has about 90 per cent of the organization leaders supporting his candidacy. He is opposed to prohibition, he has most of the newspaper support, bulking, and large behind these factors is a whimsical and genial personality and a record of high achievement that has given him an international prominence in the last decade.

Yet the issue of prohibition is so savage among Jersey Republicans that there are few unwilling to accord the dry candidate, Congressman Fort, a chance for victory, particularly as Ambassador Morrow must divide the wet vote to some extent with Senator Frelinghuysen. After a political lifetime in the dry camp and support of the anti-Saloon League, Frelinghuysen flopped spectacularly on the issue in this primary, and thereby upset all the careful preliminary planning of those who were going to give Morrow the nomination on a platter.

The contest admittedly lies between Morrow and Fort, with the size of Frelinghuysen's vote looming as the large algebraic "X" in all calculations.

HAS LONG CAREER

Frelinghuysen, if anything, is wetter than Morrow. When he flopped he flopped completely. And in Essex county (Newark) the largest county in the state, the ex-Senator has a considerable personal following built up during a long career in Jersey politics.

Were the race between Morrow, the Wet, and Fort, the dry, there probably would not be much question of Morrow's victory. But whether Jersey Republicans are sufficiently wet to divide their vote and still defeat the dry is a matter that will be decided today. Most unbiased observers believe they are.

Probably no primary of the current off-year has aroused such national interest as this Jersey battle. Heretofore the Republicans have soft-pedaled the dangerous issue of prohibition and watched contentedly while the Democrats warred among themselves about it.

SCIOTO TRACTION REMOVAL RUMOR IS NOT CONFIRMED

Dry Enforcer

Alexander G. Jamie, chief special prohibition agent, who may succeed E. C. Yellowley as chief dry enforcer of the Chicago district, comprising Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana.

More Than 20 Employees of Section Crew Discharged
By Traction Co.

A rumor that the Scioto Valley Traction Co., is contemplating removal of all traction cars between Chillicothe and Columbus in favor of bus passenger service, would not be confirmed Tuesday. A high official of the power company stated that no announcement is coming from his office at this time.

The rumor is probably prompted by the removal of approximately 20 to 25 section employees recently. All section gangs on the line between Columbus and Chillicothe have been discharged from the Scioto Valley service during the past two weeks, and at this time the foreman of the section gangs are the only ones still on the payroll.

Several veteran employees of the Scioto Valley have expressed their idea that the days of traction service over the line are numbered inasmuch as the public seems to demand bus service in preference to the street car.

In only the past few months bus service has been inaugurated by the Scioto Valley and since that time traction car traffic has decreased considerably.

ERNEST GILL FINED $100

Columbus Colored Man Pleads
Guilty To Charge of Petit Larceny.

Ernest Gill, colored, of Columbus, was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to serve 30 days in the Cincinnati workhouse Tuesday by Judge Joseph W. Adkins after he pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny. Gill was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of robbery at the Lindsey filling station on the Columbus pike and pleaded not guilty.

When the charge against him was changed to petit larceny, through the advice of his attorney, Max C. Seyfert, he pleaded guilty.

Gill was arrested with another Columbus colored man by Deputy Sheriff Carl Porter and Miller Fissell in the uptown district here at about 8 p. m. on Saturday following a chase on the highway.

Petit jurors who were to have started hearing this case Wednesday are not to report Wednesday morning.

FEUD ENDS IN THREE DEATHS

Ravenna Italian Slays Two,
Wounds Third, Then Turns
Gun On Self.

RAVENNA, O., June 17.—Slaying two men, probably fatally wounding a third, and then ending his own life, Joseph Dinato, 40, reputed bootlegger, early today "paid off" a vengeance in a rum feud here, according to police.

Single-handed, Dinato raised a rival's resort shortly before midnight last night and shot to death Benjamin De Angelis, 36, alleged bookmaker of the Roxy club, and Frank De Sules, 38, shoe shiner in the same place. He killed Ralph D'Amico, reputed owner of the club with three shots into the man's body. D'Amico was not expected to live.

Then, cornered by a policeman as he fled from the scene of the killings, Dinato fired his weapon upon himself and fell dead.

The gun-wielder, police said, blamed D'Amico of causing authorities to raid and harass him.

TOLEDO MEN STILL LOST

Federal Government Employees
To Aid Search on Theory of Rum-runners.

TOLEDO, O., June 17.—With the silent waters of Lake Erie still secreting the fate of the eight prominent Toledo men who disappeared from a speedboat early Saturday, Sheriff Joseph Zimmerman today expressed fear that the men have been captured or slain by rum-runners or high-jackers.

Acting on that theory, the sheriff left this morning for Eono, a Lake Erie hangout point for underworld denizens of the lake waterfront.

Postmaster General Walter Brown, of President Hoover's cabinet, has been asked to obtain further co-operation of every coastguard craft in this part of the Great Lakes in the search for the missing men. Brown is a personal and political associate of Charles H. Nauts, collector of internal revenue at Toledo, who is one of the missing men.

The fact that Nauts is collector of internal revenue lends weight to the sheriff's theory that rum runners may have acted against him in reprisal for activities of his department. On the other hand, the sheriff points out, every man was very wealthy and kidnapping or robbery by high-jackers might account for their disappearance.

Airplanes were still being employed in the search today.

The missing men are Nauts, his son, Herbert, an attorney; Arthur E. Kruse, Franklin B. Jones, Frank Miller, Henry J. Hainbuch, John Meyer, and John Likzsch, pilot of the craft.

DETOUR ON C. C. C.

During this week a detour will be put into effect for several days to divert the traffic over Compton creek on the C. C. C. highway, section B, is being moved from its foundations to the runaround being constructed at that point.

STOCKS SHOW SLIGHT GAIN

Industrial and Railroad Stocks
Lead Way To Moderate Recovery.

NEW YORK, June 17.—After reaching a lower level of prices under forced liquidation in the first hour today, the active industrial and railroad stocks led the way to a moderate recovery.

As was expected, the volume of selling was weakly margined, stocks at the opening were extremely heavy, swelling the total of first-half-hour transaction to a million and a quarter shares. Large blocks of stocks crowded the tape in the first few minutes and for the bulk of these forced sales the lowest prices on the day were quoted. Almost immediately a rally set in, in which more than restored the lost ground.

Compared with the opening prices, recoveries of 1 to 5 points were scored in the well known stocks before the noon hour. Westinghouse opened at 136½ and rallied to 141½, up 5½. United States Steel at 151½, up 2 points. Radio Keith up 2 at 29. General Electric up 2. American Can up 1½. Bethlehem Steel up 1½. Consolidated Gas up 1½. Gold Dust up 1½. and Standard Oil of N. J. up 2½. Similar recoveries were made by the best grade of curb and unlisted stocks, electric bond and share falling about 1 point on the curb.

Eagles' Carnival, For Shoe Fund's Benefit, Opens With Large Throng

Despite the rain Monday night, the local area 633 for the benefit of the Shoe Fund was a full swing Monday evening at Mason's park.

All kinds of amusements and games are in full supply at the benefit show and every visitor is assured of a well spent evening.

The free acts were very unusual for a show of this kind and were very thrilling, especially the Eclair Aerial Act in which Mr. and Mrs. Eckart perform hazardous acts suspended in the air.

The iron joint act performed by Mrs. Eckart was superb and hundreds of spectators marveled at the feat in which the father, mother and two sons performed as well as the mother.

The two sons were 12 and 13 years of age stage a three ring boxing match. This boxing was of a professional kind and pleased the audience.

The father and mother then staged an acrobatic act which pleased the audience immensely. However, the father of the evening was the stunt performed by Mr. Alton who completely dislocated his arm and at which time it hung to his head like that of a chicken.

The opening night of the carnival seemed to be very successful and the local area was very well pleased. The show will continue throughout the week.

AUTOS CRASH ON COLUMBUS ROAD, YOUTH IS KILLED

Ford Skids on Wet Pavement
Collides With Buick—
Others Injured.

A fractured skull which was sustained when the car in which he was riding collided with another automobile on the Columbus pike near the Mackey Ford road late Monday, has caused the death Tuesday of Elbert Elder, aged 25, of Columbus. Death came in Mercy Hospital, Columbus. Walter Fenner, aged 35, the driver of the other car, suffered fractures of both legs and is a patient in Mercy Hospital.

Deputy Sheriffs Carl Porter and Miller Fissell investigated the collision.

The accident is said to have happened with both automobiles coming toward Circleville. Elder was in a Ford roadster with three other persons, who were seriously but not fatally injured. The Ford attempted to pass the Buick sedan driven by Fenner, of which he was the only occupant. The Ford skidded on the wet pavement and the two cars crashed.

CAR TURNED OVER

The Ford turned over and was almost completely demolished.

*The Buick was badly damaged although not as bad as the Ford.

The other persons injured were Floyd Silet, 21, Irene Haggard, 16, and Ella Wiggins, 21, all of Columbus.

The injured persons were picked up by a passing bus and were taken to Mercy Hospital.

The Ford was towed to the G. L. Schler garage and the Buick which is almost a new one, was taken to the Clifton Auto Sales garage.

FATHER, TWO SONS, DROWN

12-Year-Old Boy Is Sole
Survivor of Tragedy Near Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., June 17.—A 12-year-old boy was the sole survivor today of a tragedy which claimed the lives of his two small brothers and his father who were drowned in Fernbach Dam here late yesterday.

The victims were John H. Mayer, and his two sons, Jack, 8, and William, 10. The one survivor is Michael Mayer, 12.

Jack had waded into the river to catch minnows, Michael told police. The boy was caught in the swirling waters as he lost his balance on a step-off. The father jumped in after him, but he began to sink also. Then William leaped in an attempt to save his father, but he was powerless in the strong current and all three sank.

Michael made an attempt to save the three, but as he was beginning to go under, two companions, Joseph and Francis Betz, saved him.

Firemen and police recovered the bodies from the river, but were unable to revive them.

SKINNY MILLER FACES CHARGE IN TREGO CASE

Commercial Point Man Found Guilty of Stealing Chickens—
Ward Files

A charge of perjury was filed before Squire E. C. Fricke Monday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff John G. Ward against Donald "Skinny" Miller of Derby. Miller was arrested in front of the county court house by Deputy Sheriff Carl Porter and is being held in the county jail pending a hearing to force Fricke.

Ward charges Miller with perjury in the case of the state of Ohio against Wesley Trego, of Commercial Point, who was found guilty by a jury in common pleas court Monday after about one hour of deliberation. Trego was arrested on the night of February 22, 1930 by Deputy Ward with state dry agents at the Edgar Davidson home near Commercial Point. The automobile driven by Miller contained chickens and both men were charged before Fricke with the theft from Frank Hudson, well known Scioto-pk farmer.

Miller pleaded guilty before Squire Fricke and was fined for his part in the robbery. Trego entered a plea of not guilty and was bound over to the grand jury.

Miller is alleged to have stated at the time of his arrest that he was not going to bear the brunt of the charge and let Trego out without being sentenced but when he testified on the witness stand he took the entirety of the blame stating that Trego had no part in the robbery.

Ward immediately filed a perjury charge.

Following is the gist of the warrant for Miller's arrest:

"That on June 17, 1930, my Miller appeared at a hearing in the case of the state of Ohio against Wesley Trego, and committed perjury by testifying on oath administered by the Clerk of Courts that he would tell the truth and nothing but the truth, that at the time Donald 'Skinny' Miller stole certain chickens of Frank Hudson on Feb. 22, that he said Wesley Trego was not with him in the theft of said chickens said testimony being material to said case and being false in the following respect that at the time Donald 'Skinny' Miller stole the chickens Wesley Trego was with him and aided him in the theft."

Miller has not yet been given a hearing but it is expected he will be arraigned before Fricke late Tuesday with the squire probably binding him to the grand jury. Sentence on this charge is one to 10 years in the penitentiary.

Trego has not yet been given his sentence as he has three days to file for a new trial or appeal his case. Mrs. Dudley Courtwright was foreman of the jury which found Trego guilty.

Prosecuting Attorney Edmund L. Crist represented the state in the case and Sterling M. Lamb was appointed by the court as attorney for Trego.

Selection of a jury was completed yesterday.

At noon Tuesday no trace of the Marmon sedan belonging to Max Friedman, E. Mill street, which was stolen from in front of his home shortly after midnight Sunday had been found by the local police department.

COCA COLAS POUND OUT 11-1 VICTORY OVER MOD. WOODMEN

Lynch Hurls Good Ball, So Does Wright But Axmen's Infield Affords Poor Support—Big Third Inning With Seven Runs Decides Issue.

Playing a poor ball game and failing to give support to their pitcher, caused another of the many downfalls of the Modern Woodmen Monday evening at Utilities park when they were swamped by the Coca Colas by the score of 11 to 1.

This victory for the Cokes placed them in second place. The old ball started rolling in Monday's game in the second inning, as during the first inning neither team scored.

The Cokes placed a man on every sack in the second frame and Sperm Barr placed a nice hit in right field and Cuz Dumm scored the first run. The next three batters either popped or were out at first.

Then in the third inning the Cokes knocked the ball all over the lot as seven men stabbed the rubber during this session. These runs resulted from hits in the outfield, as many beautiful hits were scored during this stanza. The bottlers also sent a man across the platter in the fourth and the score was 9 to 0.

However, in the fifth the Foresters were able to place a man on the sack and finally ran him around to third. The batter sent a hard grounder to Dutch Wefer at third, who fumbled it, finally sending a bad throw to first and letting the man at third score. This was their first and only run.

The game was rather slow until the eighth as during these last three stanzas, both teams would put men on the sacks but in many cases were put out without scoring.

Then in the eighth the Cokes again started pounding the ball, and it seemed as though the infield and outfield of the axmen just couldn't "freeze on" to those hot ones that were sent in their direction, and in this session two more runs were scored, making the score 11 to 1. The Woodmen were unsuccessful in making any runs the first part of the ninth.

Wright, hurler for the Foresters, pitched a good game of ball, even though he did allow three passes and had one strike-out, he did not have the least support in any direction.

Frank Lynch had a steady hand and allowed no free transportation, and certainly had wonderful support.

WASHINGTON 9 GETS SHIRES

Whataman Traded By White Sox For Braxton, Pitcher and Tate, Catcher.

CHICAGO, June 17—Chicago's baseball fans today realized the loss of C. Arthur (Whataman) Shires, spectacular first baseman of the White Sox who was placed on the trading block last night and sent to the Washington Senators.

Shires, who made ring as well as baseball history in recent months, was sent to Washington in a flat trade that made Garland Braxton, a left handed pitcher, and Henry Bennett Tate, a catcher, new member of the White Sox. White Sox officials announced the trade here last night a few hours before the deadline for spring swaps.

Shires attracted nation-wide interest last year when he presented his manager, Lena Blackburne, with a brace of discolored eyes and won suspension thereby.

His attempt to make pugilistic history last winter was halted by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis after Shires had packed the halls on every appearance he made.

Shires has been a member of the Sox camp since August, 1928 when he came from Waco, Tex.

CARNERA AND GODFREY TO MEET IN BIG CITY MONDAY

Walsh Says Victory For Giant Primo Will Cause Jack Dempsey To Return To the Ring For Bout Next Fall.

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, June 17—Contrary to all preconceived theories on the subject, there is likely to be no comical developments in connection with the ten round prize fight between Primo Carnera and George Godfrey in Philadelphia next Monday night. Nobody is going to whisper thoughtless, light-hearted banter in the ear of either principal about a nice ride somewhere after the fight; nobody is going to mistake vitriol for a star of roses while laying the brow of his big, manly fighter.

It seems, in other words, that the boys plan to introduce what many will believe is an innovation in these very droll times. They are going to fight this prize fight.

At least, this is my information today and it comes from a source that leaves no openings for discussion. It is my understanding that Godfrey is to accept a flat guarantee of $10,000 and that the Carnera outfit will take 60 percent of the gate, out of which it will pay Godfrey's guarantee.

They say, too, that the latter has been working like a ditch digger and will be ready to make the fight of his life, whatever that is. Personally, I have never detected this large party in the act of making the fight of his life or any other kind and, in different circumstances, I would be inclined to say that the fight of George's life simply wouldn't do at all. It wouldn't be good enough.

However, if he makes any kind of a fight this time, Carnera shouldn't come up for the fifth round. If he does, he will surprise a lot of people. If he goes the entire ten, he will astound everybody. If he wins—

It is entirely possible that he can and will win. The law says you don't have to lose and, besides, I have seen worse fighters than Carnera win from better fighters than Godfrey. Anyhow, if he wins this prize fight, the betting will be one dollar against two that he will be in there with old John Dempsey not later than next fall. Or should I say fall, without saying whose? Well, anyhow, before the autumn.

Old John is undergoing a series of motions out in Los Angeles and soon may be ready to answer the demand of his public. In fact, I suspect that John may announce very shortly that he is ready to make the fight of his life.

If they ever get this pair together, Chicago is liable to be the scene of the gripping encounter in order that visitors may get a run for their money. If they arrive in time, they can see the stockyards the same day.

Crusted thick with frost and ice stands a great battery of specially designed separators in the centrifuge room where New Sohio Motor Oil is freed from harmful wax. Only by chilling to 40° below zero—a low point long believed unattainable—can this non-lubricating content be separated and whirled out of the finest paraffin base crude.

That is typical of the many painstaking methods by which Standard of Ohio's lubrication engineers definitely control every element composing the viscosity, or "Body," of New Sohio Motor Oil. And it is this "Controlled Viscosity" which, summer and winter, assures you these advantages in New Sohio:

TOUGH BODY—stands up under the strain and heat of modern high-speed motor operation.

FLEXIBLE BODY—positive lubrication in summer heat or winter cold.

SMOOTH BODY—an oilier oil, free from non-lubricating wax—provides perfect piston seal and prevents loss of power.

PURE BODY—contains the very minimum of carbon-forming elements.

Make a real test of this modern oil in your motor. You'll be delighted with the results after you've drained out the old and put in a fresh crankcase-full of New Sohio Motor Oil... wherever you see the Red-White-and-Blue Sohio signs... and you see them everywhere in Ohio.

IMPORTANCE OF HURRYING CONSTRUCTION EMPHASIZED

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH

WASHINGTON.—Emphasizing the importance of speeding construction programs as a means of off-setting business depression and the spread of unemployment, a report on this subject will be issued soon by the committee on recent economic changes, Edward E. Munt, secretary of the president's committee on unemployment, announced today.

The report will form a comprehensive analytical statement of the public construction situation in United States, based on a survey begun in July, 1929, at the suggestion of President Hoover, for the purpose of appraising public works construction as a factor in maintaining the economic balance.

It was understood to be the opinion of the committee, in view of the experience of the federal and local governments during the last six months that public construction has played a big factor in mitigating the effect of the general business recession. Committee men felt that so far as is practicable only urgent public construction should take place in times of prosperity, leaving other work to be thrown into the business situation during periods of depression such as have existed since last autumn.

Hunt said: "The survey on which the analytical report is based was conducted by the national bureau of economic research with the assistance of the department of commerce and is a continuation of the study on post-war economic conditions published a year ago with a report of the committee on recent economic changes."

"The forthcoming report was prepared by Dr. Leo Wolman, statistician and economist, who is a member of the national bureau and will be published by the bureau under the title 'Planning and control of public works.'"

The report deals with the period since 1921. In that year the big expansion in road building began. Statistics deal largely with the expenditures by cities, New York City, particularly, of the state of New York, the multitude of undertakings of the federal government, and road building throughout the nation.

The committee on recent economic changes, named by President Hoover, when he was secretary of commerce, is a sub-committee of the president's conference on unemployment. The committee consists of Arch W. Shaw, chairman, Kenick W. Dunlap, William Green, Dr. Julius Klein, John S. Lawrence, Max Mason, George McFadden, Adolph C. Miller, Lewis E. Pierson, John J. Raskob, Eugene Meyer, Louis F. Taber, Daniel Willard, Clarence M. Wooley, Owen D. Young and Edward Eyre Hunt.

The percentages of changes in May in employment and pay roll totals in manufacturing industries were based on returns made by 13,388 establishments in 54 of the principal manufacturing industries of the United States. These establishments in May had 3,271,015 employees whose combined earnings in one week were $87,477,094.

Fifteen of the 54 separate industries had more employees in May than in April, the greatest gains having been in the ice cream, woolen goods, cement, brick, rubber tire and slaughtering industries. The automobile industry reported an increase of 15 per cent in employment and a gain of 0.8 per cent in earnings.

Four groups of industries—Food, tobacco, stone-clay-glass and vehicles, showed employment gains in May.

The outstanding decrease in employment in May was the seasonal one of 41.7 per cent in fertilizers, marking the close of the spring shipping season. Nine of the ten industries of the textile group had fewer employees in May than in April and decreased employment also occurred in these industries: electrical machinery, 3.8 per cent, steam car building and repairing, 1 per cent, Foundries, 2.5 per cent; Boots and shoes, 3.9 per cent.

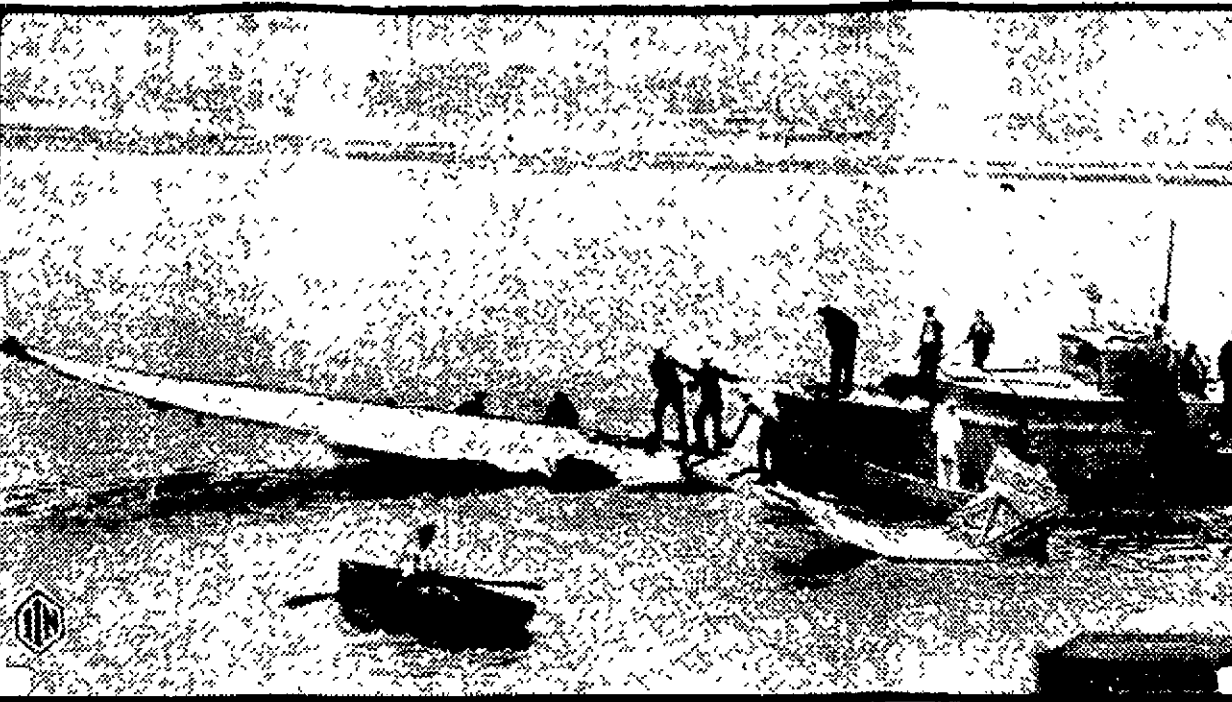

AUTHORITIES HUNT CONVICTS

COLUMBUS, O.—Authorities were searching for two Ohio penitentiary convicts who escaped from the state stone quarry near here late yesterday. The escaped men are negroes, Charles Agee, 32, and Henry Jones, 24.

The men, Warden P. E. Thomas said, made their successful break for liberty by scaling a nine foot fence which surrounds the stockade.

Agee had served three years of a 15 to 25 year sentence for robbery in Cuyahoga County and Jones four years of a 10 to 20-year sentence for a similar offense in Lucas County.

CLIFTONA REDUCES ADMISSION PRICES

New Policy For Entire Summer at Movie House Goes In Effect Wednesday.

Beginning tomorrow—Wednesday, June 18—admission prices at the Cliftona Theatre will be reduced to 25 cents for adults on all attractions except vaudeville and other stage presentations. As a special inducement to the juvenile patronage, two children will be admitted on one 10 cent ticket provided they are together when the ticket is purchased. Although this arrangement is made with the intention of establishing a five cent rate for children under twelve years of age, the actual selling of a child's ticket for five cents is prohibited by contracts with film companies. All that is necessary, however, is for two children to apply at the box office for a 10 cent ticket at the same time, in order to secure admission for five cents each.

The Cliftona's Summer Prices will apply to all shows—Sunday's and Holidays included—for an indefinite period. The Show World's Greatest Attractions, regardless of cost to theatre, will be shown at these low admissions. Paramount, Metro-Goldwyn, First National, United Artists pictures, with the screen's most famous stars, are shown only at the Cliftona. These attractions, representing the country's largest producers, may now

POLICE HUNT KIDNAPPERS

CINCINNATI, O.—Police were searching here for a man and woman who kidnapped and robbed Fred Penn, 29, yesterday.

Penn was waiting for his wife in his parked automobile when the man and woman approached him, he told police. Threatening him with a revolver, the pair commanded him to drive to Cheviot east of here, where they tied him with a piece of twine to the iron railing of a bridge. They stole $2 in cash and drove away in Penn's auto.

CROWDS ATTEND TENT REVIVAL

The revival being conducted by the local Church of the Nazarene in their large tent on east Corwin street is still drawing large crowds. The tent was filled Sunday, and Sunday night the crowd was estimated to be at least 500. Many are driving from the surrounding country and other cities and towns to attend these services.

The plain, practical, but searching gospel messages of Evangelist W. W. Loveless are having their effect, and quite a number have bowed at the altar and sought and found the Lord as an all sufficient Saviour.

A class of seven adult members was received into the church Sunday evening, and several more will be received into the church this week.

The campaign was to close Sunday, but on account of the good interest and results it was decided to continue another week, closing out next Sunday night, the 22nd.

Miss Alice Ada May entered summer school at the Ohio State University Tuesday.

EXPENSIVE 'SAVING'

Every day we hear someone ask, "Who has all the money?" and the next remark is probably, "we are in a financial crisis." Such expressions are unfounded. A manufacturer who sells his product directly says that January and February of this year were better business months than they were last year. His product is a near luxury.

People have money to buy things they want, but they are demanding values, which is a result of advertising. It appears that retail merchants are curtailing expenses by first cutting their advertising appropriations. THIS move amounts to the same thing as darkening the store and hiding the merchandise. A newspaper offers a show window for merchandise by which several thousand people pass each time an advertisement is inserted in the paper. Any merchant who cuts his newspaper advertising to "save money" is penny wise and pound foolish.

A VACATION SUGGESTION AND HOW TO USE IT.

There's no use talking, every year just before Summer checks in, we get almost "squirrelly" on the subject of vacations. "Where are you going to get all tired out this year?" is our anxious inquiry, and when we hear descriptions of the delectable mountains, the pastoral solitude of quiet places, the invigorating atmosphere of the seashore, there is a great wailing and gnashing of teeth that the prosaic business of dispensing merchandise keeps us sitting pretty tight.

It's not at all pleasant, but there's nothing we can do about it. And as we sit here, wishing every vacationist a swell time and a big coat of tan, the thought occurs to us that we, in our humble fashion, are the means of offering folks a year 'round vacation. 365 vacations a year.

To be more explicit, what could be nicer than an Estate Gas Range with an insulated oven, which not only guarantees a vacation from cooking and baking troubles, but which also assures you of a glorious holiday from the discomfort of a hot kitchen? ... Guess hard now ... That's right, there isn't anything nicer. And now that you've caught the idea, just think of the vacations to be had with a Sellers Kitchen Cabinet, a Bee Vacuum Cleaner, and goodness knows how many more time and labor devices we could mention.

Our suggestion is that you come in and see them. Our Vacation Bureau will be glad to fix you up with a route to Domestic Ease. The rates are below sea level. And the terms won't cost you any sleepless nights.

Individuality in design, quality in workmanship, unique in finish—these are the three predominant characteristics of our furniture and the three main reasons which indicate long and satisfactory service. Individuality, it's the kind we sell.

A complete showing of Quaker Felt Base Rugs displaying what's smart in floors this year. Distinct patterns—take your choice.

Football coach: "Had any experience?" Aspirant: "Yep, I played left end once in a minstrel show."

J. M. Bell, of the Second National Bank, went swimming with his son, Joseph Franklin, recently. J. M. wanted to show the son how to "bring up bottom." He dove into the water head-first, but the water was not as deep as he thought. Instead of bringing up bottom he left some of the skin off the top of his head on the rocks on the bottom, and came up with a badly mussed up bald pate. We'd suggest that he slip an aviator's helmet on his head the next time he wants to dive in shallow water. The Bell's are now enjoying a trip through Yellowstone National Park.

Charlotte McDewing: "Don't you find it difficult to keep your accounts straight?" Irma Stevenson: "Yes, indeed. This month I had to put in four mistakes to make mine balance."

Ever have trouble in finding a dust cloth that will pass under your low furniture? We've just received a shipment of Cactus Dustless Floor Mops that will lay perfectly flat to the floor. The mop is reversible, giving double wear. As there is no metal or heavy seams in it, the mop may be washed and passed through the wringer. It's the best mop that we have ever found. Better drop in and get one soon.

Mrs. Clarence Jones, of near Kingston, will be enjoying a new Estate Gas Range, with insulated oven and oven heat regulator, and spick and span in ivory enamel, trimmed in Green, in a very few days. Before deciding upon the range to purchase, Mr. and Mrs. Jones visited all the range stores in a nearby city, and then dropped into our store. When we demonstrated the Fresh Air Oven to her and assured her that she could put her baking into the oven and need not look at it until it was time to take it out, and that her baking would come out evenly baked with no burned edges, that settled it. She wanted a baker and that is just what she will get. As you know, the Estate gives "perfect baking every time."

That was a nice rain we had, wasn't it?

My, oh my, but we'll bet some of our farmer wives suffered with the heat the past few days while preparing the meals over their coal ranges. But, it wasn't at all necessary. All they needed to have done was to drop into our store and order out a Florence kerosene cooker, an Alcazar gas-line cooker or range, or a Pyralis Gas equipment. Cook with oil or gas and keep cool. We have a three burner cook stove (kerosene burning) on legs and with high shelf for as little as $22.32.

So long—we'll see you next week, if we don't dry up and blow away.
